FOR SERVICES TO HASLEMERE AWARD

INSTRUCTIONS TO ACCOMPANY THE CONFIDENTIAL NOMINATION FORM

The person being nominated should have given outstanding voluntary service to the people of Haslemere over several years; preferably this will have covered more than one organisation.

Individuals who have been given another honour (e.g. an MBE for services to Haslemere) are not usually considered for a Haslemere Volunteer award.

The awards are for individuals, not groups. There have been cases though when a husband and wife who have each given exemplary service in their own right, or two friends who have undertaken the same service together over many years, are sometimes honoured together.

Additional forms can be obtained from Haslemere Town Hall or downloaded from www.haslemere.com/awards.

Once completed the form can be handed in at the Town Hall (open Mondays, Wednesday and Fridays 10 am to 1 pm and 2 pm to 4 pm) or, when closed, can be posted through the letterbox. Alternatively the form may be emailed to Fay Foster at thefosters@haslemere.com or the Town Council at admin@haslemeretc.org

Further details about the scheme can be obtained from Fay as above (01428 644183) or the Town Hall
